Individual

Treated as an individual

There is nothing as personal as your health and wellbeing. Our health assessments are not run like a 'production line'. We take the time to listen to concerns and treat your employees and their health on an individual basis.

Additional checks

Bupa gives further choice by offering a range of add-on programmes to suit an individual's exact needs and requirements.

You can have even more support by having follow-up programmes such as a colon health check, coronary health check, allergy health check and sexual health check amongst others.

Results on same day

A Bupa Health Assessment gives many test results on the same day, meaning a more informed discussion with a doctor. An in-depth report will follow shortly after the assessment.

Continued advice

With a Bupa Health Assessment employees can receive follow-up advice on their results after their appointment by discussing any concerns or questions with the team that gave the health assessment - giving your employees further reassurance that will allow them to get on with their daily lives with confidence.
