Cf I know someone with cancer y,

ABOUT THIS BOOKLET

This booklet has been produced by Bupa, to help occupy children either at home or if they are visiting someone in hospital. It's part of a series of booklets aimed at children who know someone with cancer. The booklets have been written with the advice of cancer specialists, healthcare professionals and families affected by cancer. We hope you find them useful.

Hello

We thought you might like this little booklet that's filled with stuff to do.

When someone you know is ill, you might feel bad about doing your own thing or having a bit of fun.

ACTIVITY BOOK

Hey there's a great game inside, want to play?

Hey Jake

But it's OK to carry on with normal things, and there are even some games and puzzles in here that you could do together.

If you're hanging around in waiting rooms or visiting someone in hospital, you could take this along to fill your time.
P.S. You can find all the puzzle answers on page 22... no peeking now!

Grab your pens and pencils and doodle away!

Sign here

Think you might be famous one day? Better get practising your autograph. Here are some top tips:
The totally unreadable one.

Just do a long scribble!

Add your middle initial to make you look super-important! taut 5 ting

Now try and write your name here with your eyes closed - if it looks good, this could be your autograph!

Letters  have fit

Using fancy lettering, you can make some great
thank-you cards for anyone who has helped you and your family. Practise here.

PUZZLE MIX

Get your brain in gear and get puzzling.

Colour confusion Can you read out the colour of these words, but not the actual word? Not as easy as it looks!  Red Green Blue Black  $$
\begin{aligned} & \text { Yellow } \\ & \text { Orange } \\ & \text { Purple } \\ & \text { Pink } \end{aligned}
$$ Orange Orange purple purple Pink

 Pink}

SILLY SENTENCE

 that may come true (but most probably won't)!
How to play

- Close your eyes and place your finger on one of the numbers on the NUMBER PAD on the right.
$\dot{\times}$ Read out the words from
${ }^{\text {BOX }} \mathbf{A}$ that are next to the number that you selected.
* Now pick numbers in the same way for BOX B, BOX C and BOX D so you end up with a whole sentence.
Here's an example: My teacher shall try and kiss a disco-dancing dinosaur on Friday at 2pm

8

*SO TELL ME

Imagine you're a chat show host and your special guest is a friend or someone in your family. Interview them and see if you find out something you never knew.

KIDS' KITCHEN

GAMEON

Here are some games you could play with a relative or friend if you're visiting them in hospital or they're taking it easy at home.

Ghoppine Fists

Take it in turns with someone to think of things you'd buy at the shops that begin with the letter A, then B, then C and so on, repeating the items from the beginning each time you add a new one.
Here's how to play:

SCRIBBLEPAD

Time for some more doodling!

Take it in turns with someone to draw a picture beginning with each letter of the alphabet. Try and link the pictures whenever you can! We've started you off...

DEAR DIARY

Write down what's going on in your life...

0808 trimutiofrateo 0  Keeping a diary can be a helpful way to write about things that have been happening and how you feel about them. Why not have a go here and then start a diary in a notebook?
