Medical declaration and medical exclusions

It is important you tell us about any medical conditions. If you don't and that condition results in a claim during your trip or you cancelling your trip, the claim may be declined.

Medical declaration

Pre-existing medical conditions

At the start date of your policy, or prior to booking or taking any trip, whichever is later, you must tell us about any pre-existing medical conditions that anyone insured on the policy has.

A pre-existing medical condition is defined as:

- You have ever suffered from:
 - any type of cancer
 - any heart conditions such as angina, arrhythmia
 - any circulatory conditions such as diabetes, raised cholesterol, high blood pressure, hypertension
 - any respiratory conditions
 - any form of stroke
 - any terminal condition.
- In the prior 24 months you have:
 - received medical treatment
 - been prescribed any medication by a medical practitioner
 - been referred to or attended hospital
 - been under investigation or are awaiting results for any undiagnosed condition or symptoms.

Changes in your health

After buying your policy, you must inform us immediately of the following events:

- if you develop a medical condition or anticipate any treatment, tests or investigations for a medical condition
- if there is any change in a medical condition disclosed to and accepted by us, including any medication changes or changes in dosage
- if you are undergoing or waiting for investigation, tests or treatment.

If you don't tell us about changes, a claim might be rejected or payment could be reduced. We have the right to charge an additional premium to allow cover to continue, add further terms and conditions to your policy or exclude cover for all your conditions.

If we are not able to provide cover following a medical update or if you do not wish to pay the additional premium which is necessary to allow cover to continue, you will be entitled to make a claim under 'Section 1 – Cancelling, amending or cutting short your trip', for your pre-paid costs which cannot be recovered from elsewhere. Alternatively, you will be entitled to cancel your policy, in which case, we will refund a proportionate amount of your premium (based on unused full months of cover).

If you make a change to your policy that involves paying an additional premium, and you decide after reading the documentation that this change isn't suitable for your needs, as long as you've not travelled, or submitted a claim, a refund of the additional premium paid is available within 21 days of receipt of your documentation.

Medical exclusions

The policy only provides coverage for medical treatment abroad in the case of an emergency. This means a bodily injury or sudden or unforeseen illness suffered by you while you are on a trip abroad and a recognised medical practitioner tells you that you need immediate in-patient or out-patient treatment.

No cover is provided for:

- any travel for the purpose of receiving medical treatment or undergoing tests or investigations abroad
- any treatment for elective or non-emergency procedures
- any claim where you are travelling against the advice of a medical practitioner, or would have reasonable grounds to believe that a medical practitioner would have advised against travel had you sought their advice.

If you have included 'Winter sports cover', this will be provided for the duration of the trip.

Annual policies

The trip duration limit per trip is dependent upon the policy that you have. If you have chosen to increase this on Premier, this will be detailed on your policy schedule. If 'Winter sports cover' has been selected, the below limits apply per insurance period:

Policy	Trip duration limit	Winter sports annual trip limit (if selected)
Premier	31 days	17 days
Gold	91 days	21 days

You will not be covered for any part of your trip, if the overall duration exceeds the trip duration limit.

Changes to the policy

Changes you can make after your policy starts

If you have travelled, made a claim or it is beyond the 21-day period before you ask to cancel the policy, then we will only refund a proportionate amount of your premium if you have had changes in your health as defined in the Medical declaration, and the policy no longer meets your needs.

How we will settle a claim under the 'Legal protection' section

If anything happens which might lead to a legal expenses claim, you must tell us as soon as possible.

We will agree to your claim if and to the extent that:

- we think you have a reasonable chance of winning your case and achieving a reasonable outcome and
- we think it is reasonable to pay your legal expenses. If we do not accept your claim we will tell you why.

We have the right to approve your choice of legal representative. If your representative wants to consult a barrister we will agree if we think it is reasonable (and we may approve your choice of barrister).

We must be able to contact your representative, and you and your representative must co-operate with us and tell us about developments in your case. You must:

You and your representative must take every step to recover your legal expenses, and must include our costs in your claim if we ask you to do so. If you recover any legal expenses or other costs we have paid, you must reimburse us.

If there is a dispute between you and us about this section of the policy, it can be taken to an independent expert. The expert will be a solicitor or barrister whom you and we agree to. If we cannot agree, the President of the Law Society (or similar organisation) will choose an expert. The expert will decide who should pay their costs. This does not limit your right to access our normal complaints procedure or the courts.
